MAYOR CALLS FOR PRESIDENTIAL DEBATE

McCain & Obama Invited to Hammonton for "Town Hall"

Earlier this week, Mayor John DiDonato invited both Presidential candidates, Sen. John McCain and Senator Barack Obama to the "Newest Town Hall in America" for a "Presidential Town Hall Debate". The Atlantic City Press, NJ 101.5 Radio, KYW News Radio 1060 and countless others promoted the Town's ambitious idea. DiDonato noted that former Presidents, Reagan, Grant and Theodore Roosevelt all visited Hammonton.

WHERE WILL HAMMONTON FIRST'S HQ BE?

Within the Next Few Weeks an Announcement Will be Made

Many people have been asking: When will Hammonton First be opening their Headquarters? & Where will it be? Well, the wait is almost over, in July, Sam Rodio, Jeanne Lewis and Tom Gribbin plan to announce where this year's HQ will be. And you will definitely be in for some exciting news surrounding its opening. If you are on the Hammonton First Weekly Newsletter List, then you will be the first to know.

VINE & 2ND CONSTRUCTION MOVING FAST

Work Planned to be Nearly Complete by the End of August

The Town's contractor, Jersey Constructions began replacing water, sewer and other underground services on Vine and 2nd Streets a couple weeks ago. Curbing and concrete work have already begun on Vine Street. Major work on 2nd Street should begin in the next few weeks. All businesses located on these streets will be open during construction.
