COMMUNITY CENTER AT LAKE ON ITS WAY

Project is Approved, Architectural Plans Being Finalized

The "Boat House" Senior/Community Center on the edge of the Hammonton Lake has cleared through all of the State approval processes necessary to move ahead with construction. Final architectural plans are being completed by a local architect. Funding for this Town Project has been provided by a $400,000 State Grant awarded late last year.

SWIM CLUB CELEBRATES RE-OPENING

Upgrades to Facility Prompts Club to Seek More Members

The Hammonton Swim Club has completed extensive renovations to the private facility located at 213 Berwyn Avenue, near the White Horse Pike. A Grand Re-Opening & 50th Anniversary was held on July 5th. Call 561-8667 to join.

FIREWORKS RETURN TO MT. CARMEL FEAST

Gone for 20 Years, the Tradition Will Be Revived This Year

A childhood memory of many Hammontonians will be returning to this year's 133rd Annual Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Festival. Fireworks will be shot off during the day, marking every hour on the hour, and then a beautiful display will be presented at the end of the night on July 16th.
