HAMMONTON FIRST CALLS FOR DEBATE

4 Years in a Row, Only Hammonton First Stepped Up

For the fourth year in a row, only Hammonton First's candidates have called for a debate of all parties in a live, public setting. Sam Rodio, Jeanne Lewis and Tom Gribbin have requested a live, televised, unedited debate on the Town's TV Channel 9. In years past, Hammonton First has always agreed to debate and local Republicans and Democrats have shrunk away from the challenge and dodged debates. We will keep you updated as more details are known. Find out more by visiting: www.hammontonfirst.com/debate.html

COMMUNITY CENTER AT LAKE UNVEILED

Councilman Barberio Spearheaded This Ambitious Effort

The design and approvals for a lakeside Senior Citizen Community Center are complete and the building should be complete and open before the end of next year. This exciting project is part of an extensive Lake Park Rehabilitation Plan that includes hundreds of new safe parking spots, walking trails, a proposed outdoor amphitheater and much more.
